

Nom: _____ Grup: _____

COMPRESIÓ DE TEXTOS ORALS - MULTIPLE CHOICE

You are going to hear a sports programme about a relatively new sport: Touch Rugby. Choose the option (A, B, or C) which best answers the questions 1-9. You will hear the recording twice. You have ONE minute to read the questions.

1. The radio programme deals with

- a) all kinds of sports.
- b) the most unusual sports.
- c) the best known sports.

2. Touch rugby is generally played

- a) in female teams.
- b) in male teams.
- c) in teams of both sexes.

3. Touch rugby

- a) appeals to people who have never played rugby.
- b) attracts people who find traditional rugby too tough.
- c) draws people who have never done sport.

4. People started playing touch rugby

- a) as a pre-game exercise before a traditional rugby game.
- b) in Australia because they wanted a more simple game.
- c) before rugby games in Australia in the 1970s.

5. In what way can touch rugby be said to be similar to traditional rugby?

- a) In both games, players score via the same style of play.
- b) They both involve a lot of aggressive play.
- c) The aim is to stop the other team from scoring.

6. Simon says that touch rugby

- a) is a moderately quick and effective way to lose weight.
- b) helps people build the skills that lots of team sports involve.
- c) can be viewed as a softer sport than traditional rugby.

7. Angie says that

- a) it is not a good idea to play touch rugby if you are not minimally fit.
- b) anybody can play touch rugby, regardless of their general fitness.
- c) after a dozen games or so, you will have acquired the basic skills.

8. Simon started playing touch rugby

- a) before changing his job.
- b) on his doctor's recommendation.
- c) when he made some new acquaintances.

9. Angie wanted to do a sport

- a) that didn't exclude her partner.
- b) that didn't involve costly gym memberships.
- c) that would encourage her husband to get involved.

Touch rugby. KEY

1. The radio programme deals with

- d) all kinds of sports.
- e) the most unusual sports.
- f) the best known sports.

2. Touch rugby is generally played

- d) in female teams.
- e) in male teams.
- f) in teams of both sexes.

3. Touch rugby

- d) appeals to people who have never played rugby.
- e) attracts people who find traditional rugby too tough.
- f) draws people who have never done sport.

4. People started playing touch rugby

- d) as a pre-game exercise before a traditional rugby game.
- e) in Australia because they wanted a more simple game.
- f) before rugby games in Australia in the 1970s.

5. In what way can touch rugby be said to be similar to traditional rugby?

- d) In both games, players score via the same style of play.
- e) They both involve a lot of aggressive play.
- f) The aim is to stop the other team from scoring.

6. Simon says that touch rugby

- d) is a moderately quick and effective way to lose weight.
- e) helps people build the skills that lots of team sports involve.
- f) can be viewed as a softer sport than traditional rugby.

7. Angie says that

- d) it is not a good idea to play touch rugby if you are not minimally fit.
- e) anybody can play touch rugby, regardless of their general fitness.
- f) after a dozen games or so, you will have acquired the basic skills.

8. Simon started playing touch rugby

- d) before changing his job.
- e) on his doctor's recommendation.
- f) when he made some new acquaintances.

9. Angie wanted to do a sport

- d) that didn't exclude her partner.
- e) that didn't involve costly gym memberships.
- f) that would encourage her husband to get involved.