One weekend my father decided we should (1) __ camping in the mountains. He said we could do some fishing and cycling (2) __ we were there. So we put our fishing gear and bikes in the back of the truck and set off early. The (3) __ was quite good – it was cloudy, but there was no wind and the forecast had promised sunshine (4) __. We took it in turns to drive as I've (5) __ passed my test and needed some practice, but some of the mountain roads were too dangerous for me, so my father drove along those parts. (6) __ first, we couldn't find a suitable place to camp, but eventually we found a site near the river, (7) __ offered fresh water and good fishing. (8) __ putting up the tent, we went for a cycle ride and then we spent the evening fishing. Then it started to rain heavily, and we got very cold and wet. We moved into the tent to change our clothes and then went to sleep. Suddenly we were woken in the middle of the night by a terrible noise and, before we knew what was happening, water came rushing through the tent, taking everything with it, including us. It was really frightening. Luckily, I was able to grab hold of a tree branch and pull myself out of the water, but I had no idea where my father was. Then I heard (9) __ shout my name. I was so happy to hear his voice. In the end, we had lost all our camping, fishing and cycling gear, but we were alive. When we got back home, we discovered that a lot of people were much (10) __ off than we were, as some had lost their lives and others their homes. In spite of this terrible experience, we are planning another camping trip next month, but we'll keep away from any rivers!
