

My Town

I live in Maria de la Salut, it is a small town in the centre of Mallorca. Although (malgrat tot / aunque) it's my hometown, there are aspects that I like and others that I don't.

First, I like the "village lifestyle", it means that everybody knows each other and your neighbour is like a family member for you. In addition (a més), everything is close to home in a small town like Maria. For example, I have the school and the main square at 5 minutes from home.

However (en canvi), what I don't like about my town is that, especially in winter, there are not many things to do. The afternoons are long, especially for little children. There aren't cinemas or shopping centers to go and spend time. Moreover, since it is a small town you always see the same people, there aren't new people to meet.

In conclusion, I love my hometown and I don't want to change it for anything else in the world. If you like small villages, Maria is the perfect place.
