

GROUP 1: JACK THE RIPPER

- Jack the Ripper was a famous victim.
 a dangerous serial killer.
- He attacked several women in 1888.
 several men in 1888.
- His name "Jack the Ripper" was created by the police.
 the killer himself.
 journalists.
- His method: "Their throats were cut prior to abdominal mutilations. The removal of internal organs".
Draw some symbols on the body to illustrate his crimes

GROUP 2: LONDON IN THE LATE 19TH CENTURY

- London was deserted.
 very crowded (= many people).
- People in the area of Whitechapel were generally rich.
 poor.
- Many women were prostitutes because they had no money.
 no family.
- The police in London was called Scotland Yard.
 Metropolitan Police Service.
 Federal Bureau Service.

GROUP 3: THE FIRST VICTIM

- Polly Nichols's body was discovered in the afternoon.
 at night.
- Her death: "She suffered a deep slash to her throat and severe cuts to her abdomen and womb".
Draw some symbols on the body to illustrate her death
- She was a prostitute and she was alcoholic.
 a drug addict.
- She lived in an apartment with her five children.
 with other prostitutes, paying for food and accommodation.

GROUP 4: THE SECOND VICTIM

- Annie Chapman frequently changed her address because:
 - she had no money to pay her rent every month.
 - she always changed her job.
- On September 8, 1888: "she was thrown out of her lodging house to earn money for her bed": she chose to go out and buy a new house.
 she was forced to go out to find money.
- She had a wretched (=very difficult) life. Give the English equivalents:
→ elle "ne s'est jamais remise de la perte de son mari et de son enfant": she

GROUP 5: THE DOUBLE MURDER

- Elizabeth Stride was forced to prostitute herself because:
 - she lived on her own (her husband was dead).
 - her husband was poor and brutal.
- Elizabeth's body was discovered at __ : __ (time) on the night of September 29, 1888.
- Catherine Eddowes was murdered on the same night.
- Put the following information in the chronological order:
N°.....: She was released by the police and back on the street.
N°.....: She was arrested by the police because she was drunk.
N°.....: She was murdered by Jack the Ripper.
N°.....: She was on the way to her daughter's house to get some money.

GROUP 6: THE FIFTH VICTIM

- The atmosphere in London was: very calm.
 very tense.
- Mary Kelly's lover, Joe Barnett, went to Kelly's room on Nov. 8, 1888 because he had a problem: he was very sick and was forced to leave her.
 he lost his job and had no money to give her.
- The next morning, Mary Kelly's body was discovered in her bed. It was horrific: her body was entirely mutilated.
Show the 2 parts of her body that were still recognizable:

