

ISBN: 978 - 9925 - 30 - 350 - 2

ISBN: 978 - 9925 - 30 - 350 - 2

This Burlington International Reader is part of a series of carefully graded readers.

British Myths and Legends

Julie Hart

These three stories are a selection of myths and legends from the British Isles.

Farm worker Shaun O'Brian catches a leprechaun and demands his pot of gold. Shaun wants to be rich and never work again. Can the clever leprechaun man keep his gold safe?

Sisters Bella and Meghan must earn money for their family. Bella is good and kind, but Meghan doesn't like to work and never helps people. Will Bella's good heart help her?

A terrible dragon is terrorising a town and killing the people. Can George, the brave knight fight the dragon and save the princess? Will magic and fantasy help good triumph over evil?

ALSO AVAILABLE FOR THIS LEVEL

- King Arthur
- The Canterville Ghost
- The Secret Garden

Burlington International Readers include:

- Activity pages
- Cross-curricular focus pages
- Techno project options
- Monolingual glossary

B Burlington Books

ISBN 978-9925-30-350-2

9

789925 303502

VALIDITY CHECK

