

ANSWERS

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in parentheses. Use will or going to.

1. I think the weather will be sunny tomorrow.
2. Look at the sky! It's going to rain any minute now.
3. Since you're not feeling well, I will cook dinner tonight.
4. John has decided he's going to start a new exercise routine next month.
5. I will send you an email with all the details for the meeting.
6. We are going to have a picnic this weekend because the weather forecast is great.
7. She just found out she won the lottery! She's going to buy a new car.
8. I'm sure you will do great on your test tomorrow.
9. She's so tired. I think she's going to fall asleep during the movie.
10. They're going to paint their house next week; they've already discussed it.
11. It's so cold in here! I will turn up the heat.
12. I will call the restaurant to make a reservation for tonight.
13. She's going to start her new job next Monday.
14. Look at that car speeding towards the intersection! It's going to crash if it doesn't stop!
15. I think this new app will change the way we communicate.

ROLE-PLAY

Pair up with a partner or form small groups of 2-3 students.

Choose one of the scenarios provided below or create your own scenario where you need to make spontaneous decisions or talk about plans you have already made.

Vacation Planning

Two friends are planning a vacation together. One friend has researched various destinations, while the other makes spontaneous decisions about activities and accommodations.

Moving Day

Two friends are helping each other move into new apartments. They discuss their moving plans, including packing, transportation, and setting up their new homes. They also make spontaneous decisions.

Lost Tourist

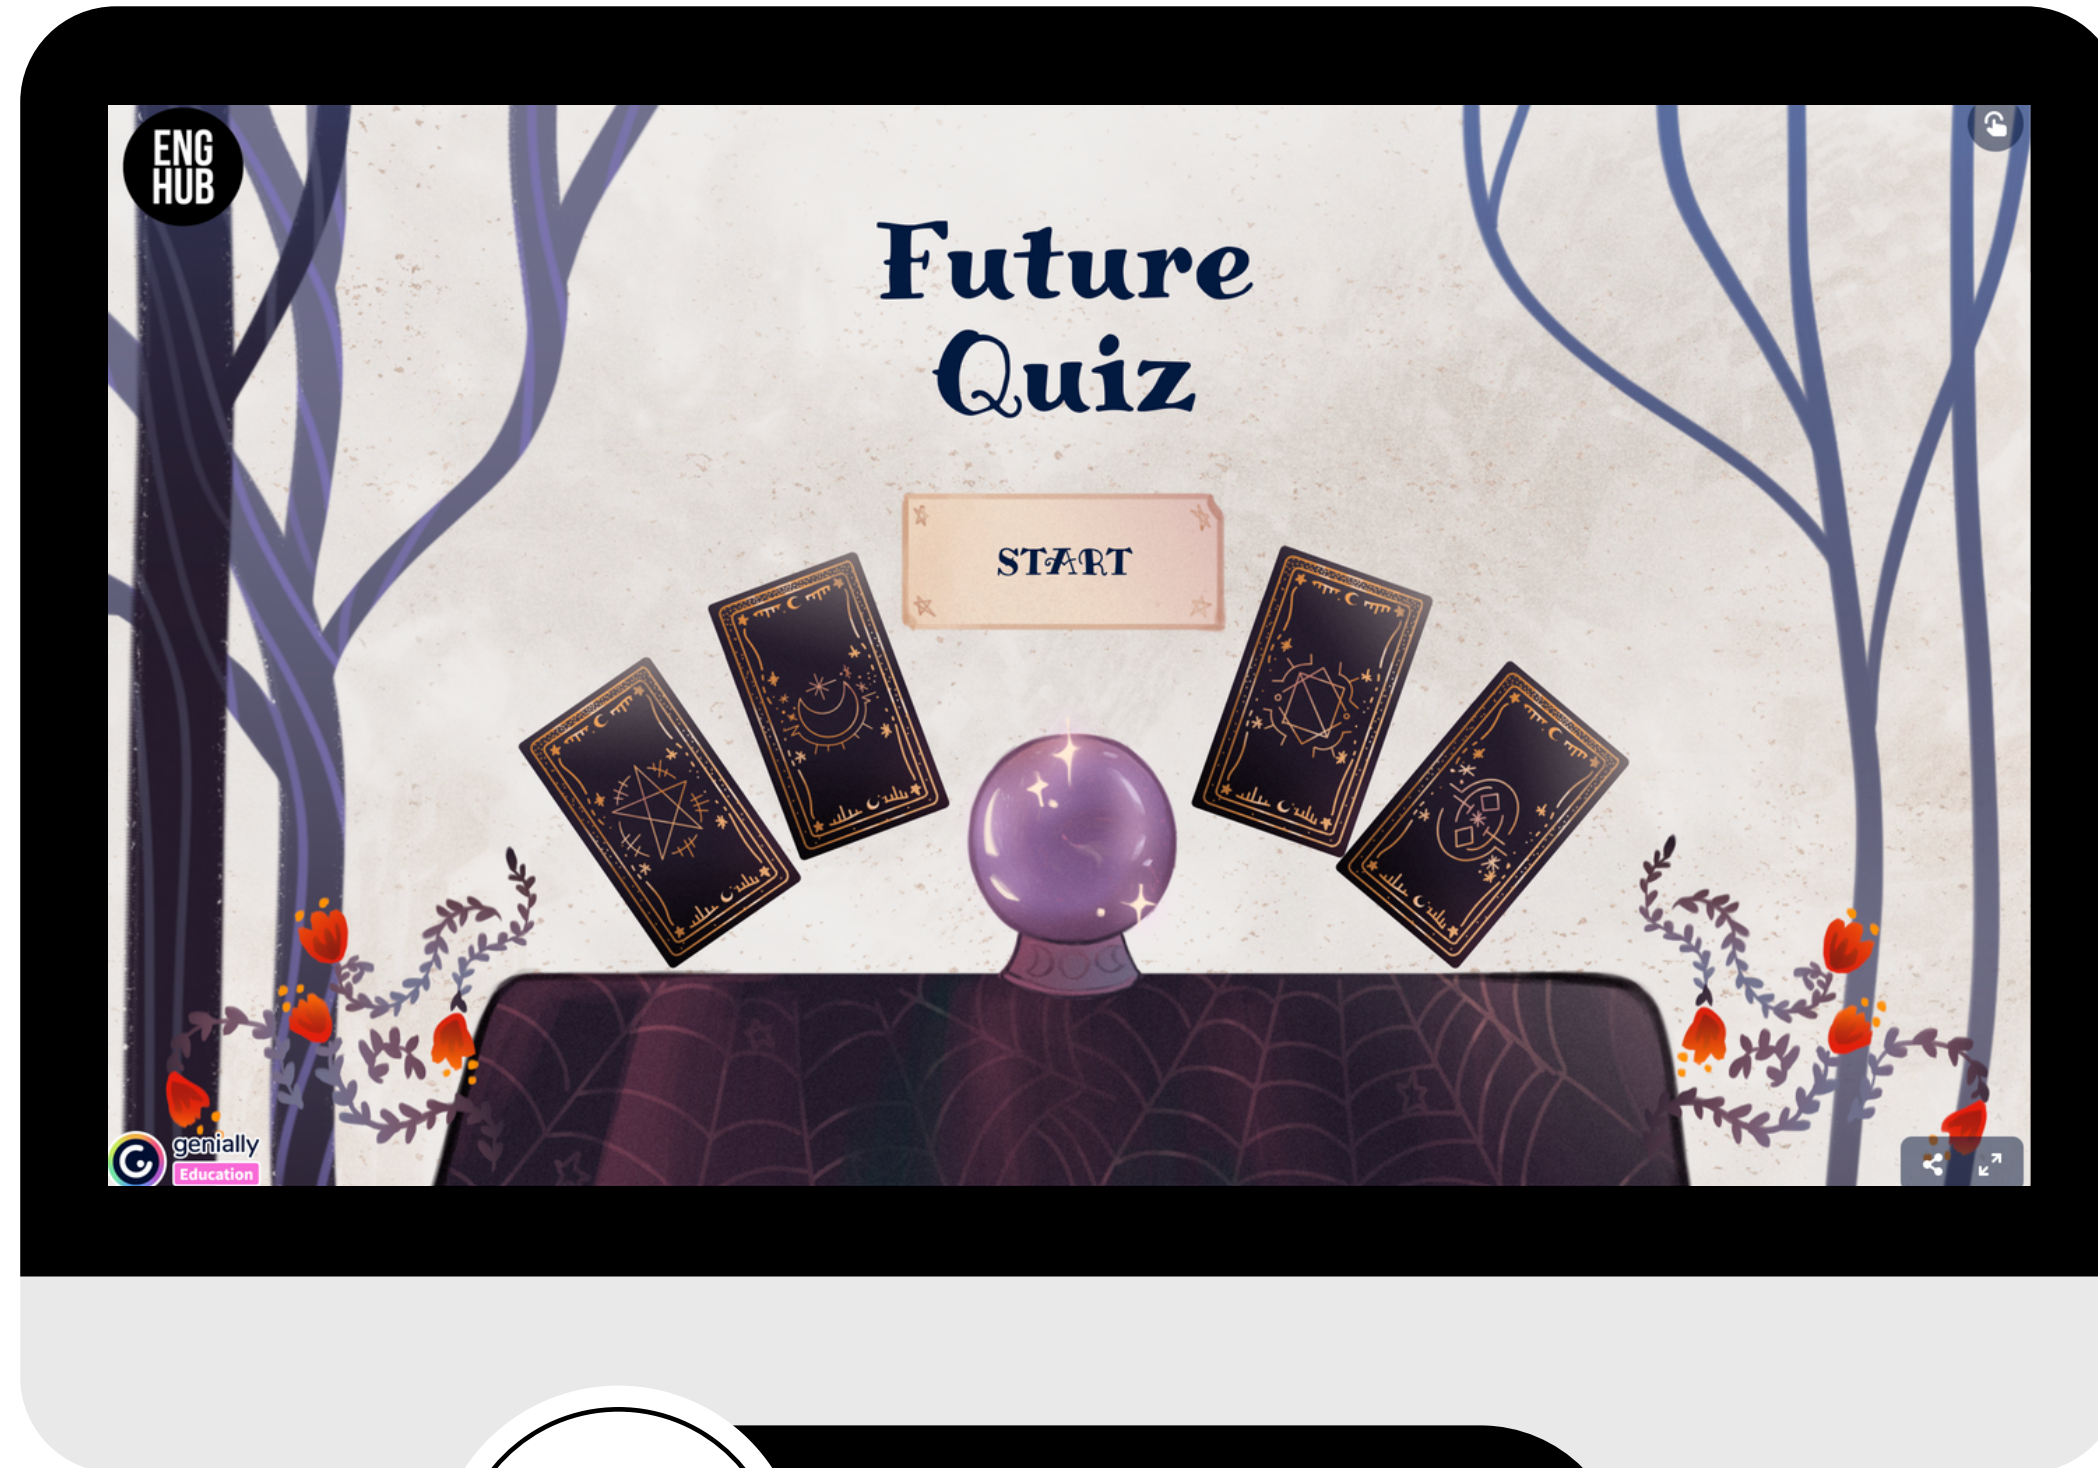

One student is a lost tourist in a foreign city, and the other is a local resident. The tourist asks for directions and advice on which attractions to visit, while the local provides information and makes spontaneous suggestions.

Job Interview

One student is a job applicant, and the other is a hiring manager. The applicant talks about their plans for the future and how they would handle unexpected situations in the workplace.

LET'S PRACTICE

PLAY NOW

Complete the quiz and practice the difference between will, going to and the present simple tense when talking about future predictions, plans, spontaneous decisions and scheduled events.

Read each question and choose the correct answer from the multiple-choice options provided.

You can play individually or complete the task together.

LET'S PRACTICE

Complete the dialogue with the appropriate future structures. Practice using will/going to/present continuous/present simple.

Alex: Hey Jamie, what (1)you (do) this weekend? I'm thinking of going to the new amusement park.

Jamie: That sounds fun! I (2) (meet) Sarah for lunch on Saturday, but I'm free on Sunday. Let's go then!

Alex: Great! I (3) (book) the tickets online, so we don't have to wait in line when we get there.

Jamie: Perfect! By the way, have you heard about the new electric car exhibition happening next month?

Alex: No, I haven't. But I believe electric cars (4) (become) more mainstream in the next few years.

Jamie: I agree. I (5) (attend) a seminar on electric vehicles next week to learn more about them. I've booked it already.

Alex: That's interesting! Let me know what you find out. Oh, look at those dark clouds outside. It (6) (rain) soon.

Jamie: You're right! I need to remember to bring an umbrella when I leave for work tomorrow. You know, what? I am actually not sure if I have one. I (7)(buy) it on my way home.

Alex: Yeah, you should. By the way, my wife told me she had invited you on Friday. (8) you (join) us for a movie night? We're watching that new sci-fi film.

Jamie: Oh, I'd love to, but I can't. I (9) (pick) up my sister from the airport. Her flight (10) (arrive) at 7 pm.

Alex: No problem, maybe next time. Have a safe trip tomorrow, and don't forget your umbrella!

Jamie: Thanks, Alex! I'll see you on Sunday at the amusement park.

ANSWERS

Complete the dialogue with the appropriate future structures. Practice using will/going to/present continuous/present simple.

Alex: Hey Jamie, what are you going to do/are you doing this weekend? I'm thinking of going to the new amusement park.

Jamie: That sounds fun! I'm meeting Sarah for lunch on Saturday, but I'm free on Sunday. Let's go then!

Alex: Great! I'll book the tickets online, so we don't have to wait in line when we get there.

Jamie: Perfect! By the way, have you heard about the new electric car exhibition happening next month?

Alex: No, I haven't. But I believe electric cars will become more mainstream in the next few years.

Jamie: I agree. I'm attending a seminar on electric vehicles next week to learn more about them. I've booked it already.

Alex: That's interesting! Let me know what you find out. Oh, look at those dark clouds outside. It's going to rain soon.

Jamie: You're right! I need to remember to bring an umbrella when I leave for work tomorrow. You know, what? I am actually not sure if I have one. I will buy it on my way home.

Alex: Yeah, you should. By the way, my wife told me she had invited you on Friday. Are you going to join us for a movie night? We're watching that new sci-fi film.

Jamie: Oh, I'd love to, but I can't. I'm picking up my sister from the airport. Her flight arrives at 7 pm.

Alex: No problem, maybe next time. Have a safe trip tomorrow, and don't forget your umbrella!

Jamie: Thanks, Alex! I'll see you on Sunday at the amusement park.

ANSWERS

Complete the sentences with the appropriate future structures. Use will/going to/present continuous/present simple.

1. My brother's bus arrives at 8 pm tonight.
2. If you don't hurry up, we will miss the beginning of the movie.
3. She is going to the dentist tomorrow morning for a checkup.
4. I will make dinner tonight if you want to come over.
5. The conference starts at 9 am sharp, so don't be late.
6. I believe that technology will change our lives dramatically in the next few years.
7. The kids are performing a play at school next Friday. We got the invitations yesterday.
8. As soon as the cake cools down, I will add the frosting.
9. I am attending a workshop on machine learning next month. I have the tickets.
10. I promise I will call you as soon as I have any news.
11. I am meeting my friends for lunch at the new restaurant tomorrow.
12. The next bus to the city center leaves at 5 pm.
13. She thinks the new superhero movie will be fantastic.
14. I am starting/am going to start my new job next week. We've discussed this with my boss.
15. Look at those dark clouds! It's going to rain soon.
16. We are having a party this weekend to celebrate our anniversary. We've already invited everyone.
17. As soon as he finishes his work, he is going to to the gym.
18. I am going to visit my grandparents in their hometown after my exams.
19. It's so hot in here. I will open the window.
20. The art exhibition opens at the gallery next month.

